MR. GEORGE G. GERDING

DEDICATION

One of the most vital components of our college is Superintendent of Buildings and Grounds. His friendly and cooperative spirit permeates his relations with students, faculty, other members of the administration, and with the community at large; this promotes the well-being of Wingate College.

Mr. Gerding's services, overseeing, planning and encouraging the development of Wingate College, and his friendly words as he passes, are well received and respected.

It is with great pride that the 1969 Gate is dedicated to Mr. George G. Gerding, a man held in high esteem not only by his employees but also by students and acquaintances.

ADMINISTRATION

Memorial Service for President Emeritus C. C. Burris

Austin-Memorial Auditorium January 27, 1969

Remarks made by Mr. Joel Herren

Shakespeare, in Julius Ceasar, said: "His life was gentle, and the elements so mix'd in him that nature might stand and say to all the world 'This was a man!'" No more fitting tribute could be paid the life of the man we honor here than this quotation from one of his most beloved authors.

Thirty-five years ago I arrived at Wingate College and for the first time met Dean C. C. Burris. Already he had been serving the students of Wingate College for fifteen years. This association was to continue in an active role for twenty-eight more years as dean, president, and always — regardless of title or duty — as teacher.

And now, sadly representing those who sat in his classrooms, I would like to share with you some of my memories of this great teacher. When you enrolled in a class taught by Mr. Burris you were not only introduced to the beauty of the English literature for here you were exposed to the real values and meanings of life. Here you were made constantly aware that learning was not an end in itself, but a means which allowed you to better serve your fellow man.

Many of his students were able to hear him from the pulpits which he capably and faithfully served as long as he was physically able. I believe it a tribute to say that from the pulpit he gave us the four gospels, Milton and Shakespeare, and in the classroom he gave us Milton, Shakespeare and the four gospels. He was the master craftsman in using each to augment the other.

Mr. Burris' students were constantly amazed at the wide range of interests and ideas found in the man: Shakespeare, the Twenty-third Psalm, the girls' basketball team which he so ably coached, Tennyson, a student-faculty play, Browning, a game of tennis, the Harmony of the Gospels, Milton, the Union County Public School system, the minor English Poets, his beloved "Danny Boy". Yet, in all of this, his paramount interest was in the student as an individual. He was always there insisting that you do your very best, exulting in your achievements, and suffering with you in your reverses.

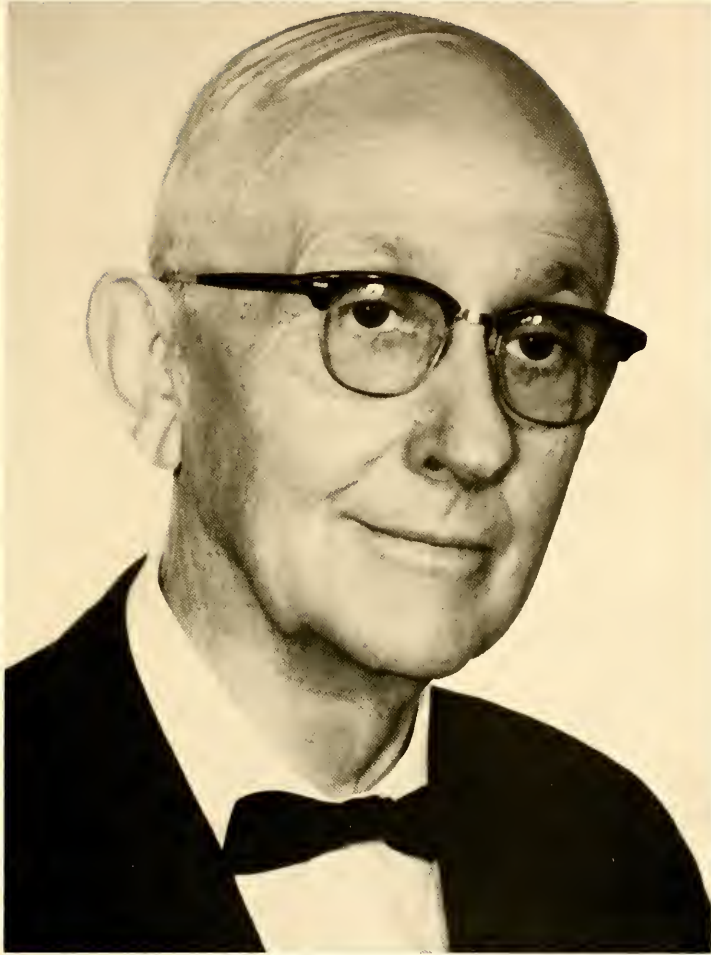

Never did the star of this man shine brighter than when he was befriending the student who came with little more than a desire for an education. From him you could expect a pat on the back when you needed it, wise counsel when you sought it, the ability to discern and seek out those who needed but didn't ask for the help he was able to give. He sought to serve the student in every way possible -- and when this called for financial assistance he willingly provided that.

And now I want to quote from Ben Jonson in his tribute to Shakespeare. I think that this is entirely appropriate and fitting to the life of the one we honor:

"Thou art a monument without a tomb . . .
He is not of an age, but for all time."

Craven Cullom Burris: Your memorial is not confined to this place or this time. Rather, your memorial is written in the hearts of the thousands who were privileged to have called you teacher — counsellor — friend.

ORGANIZATIONS

Student Government Association

The Wingate Student Government Association aims to serve the students and create an atmosphere of co-operation with the faculty. The forces of President Sink strive to promote the common interests of the entire campus community. Along with the executive officers are eight senators from the sophomore class and six senators from the freshman class. The faculty adviser is Mr. Ralph C. Williams. Others who serve in an ex-officio capacity are Mr. Haskins and Mr. Shervood.

Lindsay Sink, President

Student Government Officers

Tom Littlejohn, Vice-President; Pam Thompson, President Women's Government; Lindsay Sink, President; Jill Lane, Secretary; Jerry Austin, Treasurer.

President's Forum

The President's Forum, sponsored by Dr. and Mrs. Smith, is composed of the presidents of campus organizations who meet with the college president to convey to the administration the views of the students.

Dianna Sheets, Donna Chesser, Douglas Doster, Vicky Carol Long, Beverly Baker, James R. Men's Dormitory Council

The Men's Dormitory Council is composed of members of the Sophomore Class who have demonstrated an interest in helping others. These young men are chosen to assist in the supervision of the men's dormitories. Through this organization young men have an opportunity to develop their leadership potential and at the same time make a very positive contribution to campus life.

HELMS HALL DORM COUNCIL: Tom Clark, Stephen Gould, Robert McCutchen, Tom Loftin, Alan Jones, Harold Hodges.

Wingate Christian Council

The Wingate Christian Council, composed of students from all denominations, attempts to enhance the religious atmosphere on campus. The W.C.C. sponsors vespers in Dry Chapel each evening featuring local ministers, faculty members, and students. The council also conducts lectures and seminars during the week. Under the thoughtful guidance of Mr. Thomas Faulkenberry, the group provides a very pleasant Christian atmosphere on campus; and co-ordinates activities that any student can become involved in.

Gate Staff

You now hold before you the product of a year's hard work. The Gate Staff has worked very diligently to present to the student body an accurate representation of the many facets of life at Wingate College. They sincerely hope that as you look through this book you will relive the experiences depicted and that they will have new meaning to you. The Gate Staff is proud of its work and hopes that you are too.

Debate Club

One of the most active organizations on campus, the debate club, has brought much recognition and honor to Wingate College. Coached by Mr. Joel C. Herren, the team travels extensively to participate in debate tournaments with senior as well as junior colleges. The team fares exceptionally well in the senior college competition.

An outgrowth of debating at Wingate is the connected admission into Phi Rho Pi, the national junior college forensic fraternity. Debating and public speaking awards are presented annually to outstanding members of the debating team.

Outing Club

Man has always been exploring nature and outdoor life. Students at Wingate College are no exception. These students experience many exciting and adventurous moments as they explore the various aspects of our natural surroundings. They are particularly interested in climbing and exploring caves; hikes supervised by the clubs faculty advisor, Mr. Eric Yarborough, are also of interest and enjoyment to the club members.

International Relations Club

International problems are closer to home than many people realize. An aim of the International Relations Club is the understanding of these problems by discussing world issues.

Foreign Student Club

The phrase, "The world is getting small," may be confirmed by a quick check around the Wingate Campus. We have students from five foreign countries who join the Foreign Student Club. Adjustment to life in the United States and more specifically on the Wingate Campus is made easier by the affiliation. Mrs. Ruth Horton is the faculty advisor.

Third Row: Brenda Carter, Anna Marie Brittain, Sandy Collins, Mr. Teer, Mrs. Little, Geri Berg, John Cochrane, Bill Seila.

A desire to read and understand literature is a requirement for membership in the Literary Club. At each meeting specific literary works are informally discussed — not only the content and the author's intentions, but also influences in his life that occasioned the writing of the play, novel, or poem. Most of the works considered are by American authors. The club members occasionally attend the performance of a play or movie that corresponds to a recent topic of discussion. The club's faculty advisors, Mrs. Sylvia Little and Mr. Thomas Teer, are able to lead the group in some very interesting and exciting discussions. In Cold Blood and The Heart Is A Lonely Hunter have been recent topics.

Women's Recreation Association

All women students at Wingate are members of the W.R.A. An attempt is made to provide a wholesome program of physical activities — from bridge to soccer — in which all of the “weaker sex” can participate and enjoy themselves.

Student Education Association

The Student Education Association is joined by those students who plan to pursue a career in the teaching profession. This year special emphasis is being placed on gaining practical knowledge and experience that will be helpful when the students become professional teachers. The students are exposed to speakers, such as guidance counselors, who seek to give them a better insight into the life of a teacher. They also perform such useful services as babysitting for parents who are at the local P.T.A. meeting.

ATHLETICS

Basketball

Despite this year's moderate record, the Wingate Bulldogs young team displayed some promising talent and played some good games. Several games were lost in the closing seconds. However, the young players demonstrated much potential on the hardwood and are looking forward to some greater basketball action in the future.

Two points coming up!

Baseball

Coach Christopher instructs his captains, Rick Motsinger, Gary Catoe, and Fred Grice on how to play on a snow covered field.

Spring may bring out the havoc in Wingate students but not in the fighting Bulldogs baseball team. While most students are relaxing in the warmth of their rooms, Coach Ronald Christopher's "diamond" boys are out in the final cold days of Winter preparing for the season ahead.

As always, baseball brings out the best of Wingate College athletics and this year will be no exception.

Grice picks another off at first.

The coach is pleased with another "dandy" play.

Motsinger is safe at second.

Another hit for the Bulldogs.

Track and Cross Country

It takes a lot of hard practice and determination to run five miles and do the 100 in less than ten seconds. However, Coach Thomas Faulkenberry's daily practice sessions paid off as the Road-runners demonstrated real strength in fall competition.

Scores never tell the tale. Only individual performances can show the real strength of team and Coach Faulkenberry's boys are very optimistic about the season ahead.

Third Row: Charlie Heacock, Dennis Kidwell, Frank Ward, Jim Welson, George Williams, Joe Stegall, Jim Klauber.

Bulldogs are on the ball.

Another victory in the bag.

Tennis

Coach Ronnie Smarr brings to the tennis courts a young but very talented team. Six freshmen and one sophomore give the team a young look. But with a good combination of talent, hustle, and team spirit, a winning season is expected.

Kneeling: Deepal Wannakuwatte, C. J. Travers. Standing: Tim Keen, Bill Lagatuta, Ralph Burleson, Rick Slott, Tony Pospisil.

Perfect return.

Watch out for the water hazards.

Golf

Golf has always been a winning sport at Wingate, and this year is no exception. Three sophomores will lead the way: Mack Maxwell, Dan Maples, and captain Marc Gooden. Coach Connell is optimistic for another winning season.

Coach Connell gives captain Marc Gooden tips on his grip.

Grip is important, especially in golf.

It's a good lie, but watch the divot.

Mack Maxwell, Bud Moore, Marc Gooden, Dan Maples

Cheerleaders

Not many students at Wingate can claim affiliation with as many sports as our enthusiastic cheerleaders. These girls certainly cannot be classified as pure spectators because they have participated in the real sense of the word. Every team needs an extra push that instills confidence and desire and our cheerleaders are just the ones to do it.

Headed by chief Beverly Baker, the squad consists of Marcia Ross, Becky Harrison, Leigh Crawford, Barbara Ward, Jeanie Garlan, Kay Miller, Margaret Rich, and Debby Taylor. Miss Nancy Langdon was faculty sponsor.

They're behind every play.

"Lung power."

Watch the game, girls!

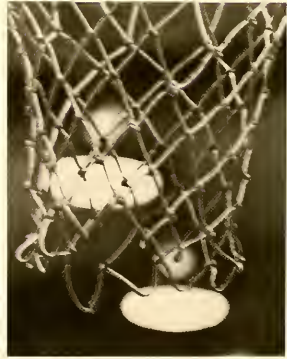

The cheerleader squad had some new members at this game.

Intramurals

The intramural program at Wingate College is designed to interest students in team and individual play. Only a limited number can play varsity sports, but everyone has the opportunity to participate in the intramural program.

Epilogue

*We in thought will join your throng,
Ye that pipe and ye that play,
Ye that through your hearts today
Feel the gladness of the May!*

*What though the radiance which was once so bright
Be now for ever taken from my sight,*

*Though nothing can bring back the hour
Of splendour in the grass, of glory
in the flower;*

*We will grieve not, rather find
Strength in what remains behind . . .*

Wordsworth
